

God Bless

I admire her
She admires me
We give each
Good company

But I look at her spirit
Her faith is strong and I fear it
If only there were a way to clear it
(Clear it) From these lyrics

It brings me in
Yet pushes me away
A benign fury
Fine yet frayed

God bless and wipe my sins clean
But we broke up since I don't believe
In your Messiah...
The fire that burns in me burns in you too
But faith chokes your heart, feeding it a toxic dew

Slight tears
Push on my eyelids
Trapped in the web of
These sadist cupids

Forgive me if I
Look into her eyes
Lost in the hope
That love provides

Lost in the love
That religion casts down
Because I'm not [christian]
Therefore I'm alas foul

God bless and wipe my sins clean
But we broke up since I don't believe
In your Messiah...
The fire that burns in me burns in you too
But faith chokes your heart, feeding it a toxic dew
God Bless...

These sadist cupids
These sadist fucking cupids...

God bless and wipe my sins clean
But we broke up since I don't believe

In your Messiah...
The fire that burns in me burns in you too
But faith chokes your heart, feeding it a toxic dew

God bless and wipe my sins clean
But we broke up since I don't believe
In your Messiah...
The fire that burns in me burns in you too
But faith chokes your heart, feeding it a toxic dew

God Bless...
