

Rain

Let me hold you in my arms
To have you one with me
Melancholy is my charm
Joined by the rolling sea
As one we bask the cloudburst
Two souls in harmony

With the drizzling rain's melody

Open up, rain on me
Falling clouds set us free
Melt the line, join with me
In dismal skies let us be

The horizon fading nigh
She spoke to me this time:
"See the ocean meet the sky
"A sharp defining line
"When the clouds begin to cry
"Then the two intertwine"

A friendship undenied

Open up, rain on me
Falling clouds set me free
Melt the line, join with me
In dismal skies let us be

Cheerlessness reality
Linked us in despondency
And at this one time of day
Fastened they, sky and sea
