

The Memory Of You

Time diverges paths
Once again
Fate leaves too many
Loose ends

My dreams are littered with remnants
Of you
Of what ifs, if thens, and plans to Follow through

The memory of you
Fades and fades away
All I have of you
Dims from bright to gray

What can be said about love
And loss
Of the lives touched and the paths
All the paths crossed

Mistrust breeds and spreads
Like cancer
Questions beget questions
Never answers

The memory of you
Fades and fades away
All I have of you
Dims from bright to gray

Time diverges paths
Once again
Fate leaves too many
Lost friends
